Guild News You Need To Know!

Volume 4, Issue 10

FROM YOUR EDITOR

All of the bees – queens, drones and workers – are busy in the hive, so you only have a brief message from me, your editor. This was the week of Youth Festival and Kit was busy with that project; and Stephanie is very busy with some details at the Designer House. Every week I receive updates from all the co-chairs and vice-presidents to keep you well informed about the activities at The Guild. This week I gave the two head bees a week off to be busy bees.

TICKETS TO THE DESIGNER HOUSE-Correction

Last week I gave the incorrect e-mail address for Marlene. Here is her report with the correct address.

All members will want to take advantage of the group sales rate on tickets. The Designer House at the door tickets will be $15 but a group of 12 tickets will be $12 each. If you are interested in purchasing tickets in advance contact Marlene Parmele: aloha1749@carolina.rr.com or 704-759-1173

MEMBERSHIP MUSINGS

What a delicious luncheon we had at The Custom Shop for our winter meeting. Big Kudos to Barbara Kopald and Cynthia Bradford for arranging the event. Everyone enjoyed meeting Christopher Warren-Green and we had six door prize winners! Now a favor, when you return to The Custom Shop or if you go there on the recommendations of all of us at the meeting, be sure to let them know you are a part of The Guild. They worked hard for us and closed for lunch that day to serve our group.

A big list of Kudos Korner will be coming next week as so many of you worked on the Youth Festival. And if you did not we hope we saw you there being supportive by your presence!

We have just welcomed our 53rd new member and we now have three members who have rejoined! It is exciting to know that you are out there spreading the news of all the good and fun things we do, as we just keep on getting these new members. A special welcome to Leslie Cooper; Leslie is also the head of the Parents' Association for the CSYO and JYO.
