THE POWER OF *W*OMEN

By Jeanette Alvarado

The 13th Annual Fashion Show, The Power of Women, was held on March 4 at the Wells Fargo Atrium. One hundred and fifty guests enjoyed fashions by Our Place Boutique and Nitsa's Apparel. The clothes were fabulous and looked stunning on our many Guild and celebrity models.

Once again, Guild member Lingky Sugg donated beautiful floral arrangements. Catering was provided by Best Impressions who never fail to impress us with their delicious food. A wine bar, bourbon tasting and an Olde Meck Brewery kiosk kept everyone satisfied.

The successful live auction was conducted by Wilton Connor and Ben Roe. They were assisted by Leo Soto and Jacomo Bairos, both of the CSO. In addition, there were over a dozen raffle items won by excited participants.

volunteered to make this a very successful event for the Guild.

Special thanks to my wonderful committee for all their hard work and dedication: Linda Borders, Julia Church, Catherine Connor, Linda Daleure, Peggy Dreher, Carole Graham, Barbara Kopald, Amy Martin, Lisa Phillips, Linda Weisbruch and Melissa Woolf.

Dear Members of the Fashion Show Committee,

Congratulations to each of you on the successful 13th Annual Fashion Show. With all of your hard work, commitment, vitality, energy, and wherewithal, this event was absolutely delightful—the fashion show was exquisite (of what I know about fashion), and the models stunning.

All in all, it was a run(a)way success... ☺

Bravo to al you wonderful folks for a job very well done!

With warmest regards,

Jonathan Martin

As I sit down to right this letter to each of you I am having a slight mind freeze for perhaps two reasons. First, the weather outside has decided to return to drab winter and second, because there are so many members to thank for so much activity. The Guild has been on overdrive with activities since our last issue of Noteables. So...I will dive in and hope not to forget anyone.

Not to prioritize, and I think there is really no such word in Daniel Webster's book, but the Fashion Show was a huge success and one of our major fundraisers for the year. Jeannette Alvarado and her committee of Linda Borders, Julia Church, Catherine Connor, Peggy Dreher, Carol Graham, Barbara Kopald, Amy Martin, Lisa Phillips and Melissa Woolf, proved once again how well The Guild works as a group. Everyone had a wonderful time that evening at the Wells Fargo Atrium. I was especially pleased to honor Jeanne Martin Brayboy with the Marie R. Rowe award. Jeanne is a delightful woman, well deserving of the award, and I do hope you were able to speak with her during the evening. The live auction was a stellar success. Ben Roe and Wilton Connor were our two wonderful and handsome auctioneers for the evening. The models were gorgeous, or so my husband commented, and the food and wine was superior. Linda Borders does us proud with the wine pairings she secures! The bourbon tasting too was successful, and I thank my Kentucky heritage for making what I thought were fine selections for the event.

A great deal of hard work goes into each of our events. Not the least of which is our Youth Festival. Held this year, for the first time at the Knight Theater, the concert was fantastic. The young soloist, Alexandra Mullins, played a harp concerto that would bring tears to your eyes. She is truly a gifted young musician. Alexandra is the daughter of Guild member and Parents Association Representative Pamela Mullins. It is unfortunate that more of our members do not take the opportunity to attend the concert. These are the young people for whom we work so hard throughout the year. My special thanks to Jackie Slaugenhaupt and Sharon Lacy for spearheading this event. I would also like to thank the Charlotte Symphony which over the years has supported the Youth Festival. Many hours of hard work are put into Youth Festival, and it has always been a successful, polished, and well received concert.

In addition, we held our winter meeting at Ballantyne Country Club, announced our slate of officers for the forthcoming year and set the date and time for our O'-ver-ture luncheon. Look for additional information on these and other events in this issue of Noteables.

Noteables is like the high school yearbook, filled with memories and worthy of keeping. We send out The Horn and e-mail blasts as the occasion requires. These are quick and to the point; information for you at that instant, like the school newspaper. So enjoy this issue and keep it near at hand so you may reference it as you need.

I would like to thank each of you who have heard the call for volunteers and answered whole-heartedly. Without our volunteers we are nothing but a set of by-laws. I look forward to seeing each of you at the O'-ver-ture luncheon!

Mission Statement
The purpose of The Symphony Guild of Charlotte, Inc. is to create, develop and promote an interest in symphonic music in the community of Charlotte and the surrounding metropolitan area and to provide financial and volunteer support to the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra Society, Inc., the Charlotte youth symphonies and symphonic educational activities.

13TH Annual Marie R. Rowe Award Honors Charlotte Symphony Board Member Jeanne Brayboy at "Power of Women" Fashion Show

By Peggy Dreher

The Symphony Guild of Charlotte, Inc. was pleased to select Jeanne Martin Brayboy as recipient of its 13th Annual Marie R. Rowe Award. This prestigious award, which recognizes leaders who have had a positive impact on the local arts community, was presented at The Symphony Guild's The Power of Women gala and fashion show on Friday, March 4, in the Wells Fargo Atrium.

The award was established in 1999 to honor beloved Charlotte arts patron Marie R. Rowe and is given annually to a member of the Charlotte community who has shown a strong support of the arts through volunteerism.

Jeanne Martin Brayboy is the epitome of volunteerism for the arts. She retired from the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, where she was an elementary school music teacher...but that was only her desire...her passion was improving the availability of arts and music in Charlotte.

She has volunteered for cultural organizations around the city, including the Blumenthal Performing Arts Center, North Carolina School of the Arts, Central Piedmont Community College, the Afro-American Cultural Center, Friendship Trays, the Mint Museum of Art, the Foundation for the Carolinas, and the Levine Museum of the New South. Ms. Brayboy also serves as a board member for the Charlotte Symphony, Discovery Place, and the African-American Community Foundation. This speaks volumes about Jeanne's commitment. Jeanne certainly has followed her passion and made an impact on the arts community.

Jeanne's son, daughter-in-law, and daughter, who was visiting from Washington, DC for the occasion, were beaming proudly as their mother was presented the Marie R. Rowe Award, an etched Tiffany & Company crystal plate. They were so delighted to see their mother's many achievements receive recognition. In her comments, Jeanne thanked The Guild for such an honor and Tiffany & Company for the award. She expressed her belief that she gained immeasurably from her involvement with so many organizations and talented people.

In a note sent to the Symphony Guild, Jeanne said, "The Guild affair was lovely. Everyone was so gracious to me and to my family...Thanks again to The Guild...for this special honor and...for all the good things [The Guild] does for our community."

*Dear Marta,
It has been a pleasure knowing you during the short time since we met.
My sincere gratitude to you and The Guild for the honor of the Rowe Award. I will cherish it and work to deserve it.
Thank you for all the good things you and The Guild do for our children and the community.
Sincerely, Jeanne*

Forms for Symphony Guild membership renewals for the next fiscal year (2011-2012) were mailed on March 31, 2011. This year the Guild Board voted to keep dues the same as last year's dues. Your completed forms and membership fee are due on June 1.

For many years Guild members have been required to pay a specified fundraising fee to purchase tickets to fundraising events, which, in the past, have included the Designer House, the Fashion

Show, and/or Gatherings. This coming year Active and Associate members will again be expected to buy a ticket to a major Guild fundraiser, but because the event and the fee have not yet been specified, no advance payment is requested. Members will receive more information regarding Guild fundraising events in the future. We look forward to your continuing membership and support for our programs, so join us for another exciting year!

Youth Festival Debuts at Knight Theater

By Jackie Slaughaupt

Thank you to everyone who made the 24th Youth Festival such an amazing success! This was the first year that the concert was held at the Knight Theater in Uptown, and it made for a wonderful backdrop to a great event. We raised over $7,500 in donations to help fund the Guild's enrichment activities and offset the cost of the concert and theater rental.

The evening featured performances by the CSYO and the JYO under the baton of Ernest Pereira, Youth Orchestra conductor. The 2011 Young Artists Competition Winner, Alexandra Katelyn Mullins, shone brightly with her solo performance in Ginastera's Concerto for Harp, Op. 25. She was accompanied by the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra conducted by Jacomo Rafael Bairos.

After presentation of the scholarship awards (see separate article), the evening ended with over 150 CSYO and Charlotte Symphony musicians on stage together performing Tchaikovsky's Romeo and Juliet Overture-Fantasy.

I would like to thank the Committee members for their hard work and dedication. Lingky Sugg did an amazing job coordinating the invitations, Molly Rose Nass coordinated the printed program, and Jean Wright worked to make sure scholarships were awarded to our young beneficiaries.

Kit Ramage hosted the lovely donor reception held at intermission in the VIP room and Priscilla Sabatelli provided refreshments for the CSO in the green room. Thank you to Carole Loges and Janet Cauley for coordinating tickets and community outreach and to Molly Foy and Donna Kiser for helping them in the box office that evening.

Peggy Dreher was in charge of donations and helped the Guild raise over $7,500, exceeding our goal by over $1500. Water for the evening was provided by Sharon and David Lacy. Throughout the many months of preparation, Lisa Phillips helped to mail invitations, letters, and make arrangements at the Knight Theater.

Martha Player ensured that our young musicians were taken care of at the CSYO and JYO pizza dinner. All of this could not have been done without the support and dedication of Stephanie Levin in the Guild office. Special thanks to Meg Whalen and Joan Foley for their help at the CSO office with the program and ticket sales.

There were many additional volunteers who helped the night of the performance. Anne McKnight, Sallie Moody, and Betty Seifert helped direct the students and keep everything in order. Thank you also to parent volunteers Johanne Hawk, Jackie Krajewski Cheryl Drake-Bowers, Jennifer Webber, and Sally Golden as well as to Youth Orchestra Manager Chris Rydel.

Plans are already underway for next year, so please consider Youth Festival and the Youth Orchestras' activities when you are filling out commitment sheets. We would love to have you!

Merit Awards at Youth Festival

By Jean Wright

Three CSYO musicians were honored with merit scholarships at the 2011 Youth Festival. Alexandra Katlyn Mullins received the Betsy Knight award; Emily Krajewski, the Meg Hutchens award; and Sarah Sullivan, the Past Presidents' award.

Each year a committee comprised of Youth Symphony Conductor Ernest Pereira and CSYO coaches choose the recipients. Approximately two weeks before the concert, I notified the parents and family of the winners. They have the option of letting their child in on the secret or keeping it for a surprise the night of the concert.

For me, the best times are behind the scenes. This year, Guild President Marta Fales and I showed up at the Pizza party to notify the recipients. While waiting in the wings for the presentation, I was impressed by their pre-concert poise and composure.

Musical Petting Zoo Team Concept A Great Success

By Priscilla Sabatelli

Over the past summer, Lisa Phillips and Julia Church developed a new way of managing the Musical Petting Zoo. We have been using this team concept for about a year. As part of this team, we have "Zoo Keepers" who take charge of a single event. They oversee setup, breakdown and direct the volunteers. Others within the system make sure that there are enough volunteers and the necessary supplies. This has worked very well, and we would like to broaden its scope and get more members involved. Once more members are involved, we will be able to offer the Musical Petting Zoo to more children in the community.

This year we have held MPZ at ImaginOn, Lollipops concerts, Providence Day School, and one of the regional Libraries.

When you are planning your Guild Enrichment commitment for 2011-2012, please think about helping with the Musical Petting Zoo. There are many types of jobs available, and I am sure one of them would be just the right fit for you. Many hands make light work!

We are only a phone call or email away. If you are interested, please contact me at psabatelli@bellsouth.net or 704.489.0688. I look forward to working with you. More information will be forthcoming to let you know what, where, and when.

Youth Orchestra Auditions

By Jackie Slaughaupt

Every spring our young musicians need to reaudition for JYO and CSYO. This year's auditions started early on April 3. Guild members help with auditions by checking in the students, assigning them to practice rooms, and providing all around reassurance to nervous students (and parents!).

Auditions are held at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 3200 Park Road (at the corner of Park and Marsh Roads). If you can find time in your schedule to help this year please call or email me at 704-756-7208 or at jackie.slaughaupt@ml.com. Additional audition dates are scheduled for:

Tues., April 12, 4:15-9pm	Fri., April 15, 5-9pm
Wed., April 13, 4:15-9pm	Sun., May 8, 1-4pm
Thurs., April 14, 5-9pm	Sun., May 8, 4-8pm

Guild 101

By Betty Lou Newcomb

A special "Guild 101" was held at the lovely home of Melissa Woolf on April 6. New Member Chair Rebecca Klepser and Mentor Chair Robin Cochran arranged the meeting and invited new members and their mentors.

The main topic for discussion was our upcoming O'verture event presented by Melissa Woolf.

We've Got Letters ...

Thank you so much for awarding me a scholarship at the Youth Festival Concert this past week. I also want to thank you for supporting CSYO and JYO; they are programs that have greatly impacted my life. These programs could not exist without your support, and for that I am truly grateful. Thank you!

*Sincerely,
Emily Krajewski*

Thank you so much for the musical petting zoo at ImaginOn Jan. 21. As the mother of a 3 year old who is incredibly interested in music but (as parents) we have no inclination ourselves, we were thrilled to go to see so many instruments in one place, and for him to get to play them as well! He got to try every single one and had a great time.

Thank you so much!!

*Barbara, Brian &
Ethan Morrow (3 yrs)*

The following was received from Gina Salvati, Development Director for Communities In Schools, for our donation of fifty tickets to the 24th Annual Youth Festival Concert on March 17:

Many thanks for your belief in our students and generous support. This was a wonderful experience for our students!

*Participating in the Young Artists Competition sponsored by your guild was the culmination of my endeavors thus far in my musical career. I can't tell you how thrilling it was not only to compete on stage before three renowned musicians, but also to be awarded a category prize. The insightful comments I received from the judges are invaluable. My teacher and I clearly understood each of them, and we have been using them to improve my concerto.
