Youth Festival 2010 Celebrates Young Musicians

By Jackie Slaughaupt

The Symphony Guild and the Charlotte Symphony presented the 23rd annual Youth Festival at Ovens Auditorium on Wednesday, February 24. This showcase of the area's finest young talent featured Baron Fenwick, the Senior Division Grand Prize Winner of the Guild's Young Artists Competition.

The evening began with a pre-concert reception chaired by Cookie Parnell and Wendy Smolen. This reception highlights all the Young Artists Competition winners, Scholarship winners, and our generous donors. Thanks to Peggy Dreher for chairing the donor committee.

The program opened with the Charlotte Symphony Youth Orchestra directed by Ernest Pereira performing the raucous "Bacchanale" from Samson and Delilah. Following the Youth Symphony, the Charlotte Symphony, conducted by Christopher Confessore, accompanied pianist Baron Fenwick playing Movement No. 1 from Prokofiev's "Piano Concerto No. 3 in C Major, Op. 26." This fantastic 15-year old is a student at the University of North Carolina School of the Arts. His outstanding performance received a standing ovation from an enthusiastic crowd.

Following an animated speech by Youth Festival Honorary Chair Benjamin K. Roe, General Manager of WDAV 89.9 Classical Public Radio, our own president Kit Ramage presented gifts to Youth Orchestra Manager Chris Rydel and conductors Chris Confessore and Ernest Pereira. Kit then announced this year's scholarship winners. Receiving the Betsy Knight

Scholarship was Jacob LeGrone. Winner of the Marie R. Rowe Scholarship was Victoria Pan. Katherine Elise Turner won the Meg Hutchins Scholarship, and Joshua Carter received the Past Presidents Scholarship. Prizes were also awarded to the CSYO Practice Marathon winners, Katelyn Mullins and Moriah Roycroft.

The second half of the program featured the Charlotte Symphony Junior Youth Orchestra in works by Sibelius, Fauré, and Glière. The concert ended with an exciting and powerful side-by-side performance of Franz Liszt's Les Preludes, with more than 150 musicians from the Charlotte Symphony and the Charlotte Symphony Youth Orchestra together on stage.

Conductor Ernest Pereira, a violinist in the Charlotte Symphony, has led the Charlotte Symphony Youth Orchestras since 1988. Guest conductor Christopher Confessore is Music Director and Principal Conductor of the Brevard Symphony Orchestra and Principal Pops Conductor of the Alabama Symphony Orchestra.

A sincere thank you goes out to the Charlotte Symphony for their wonderful partnership in this year's Youth Festival, with special thanks to Meg Whalen for her hard work and dedication to this event.

Of course, we couldn't have done this without our wonderful Guild volunteers. Hospitality was provided for all the musicians under the capable leadership of Marta Fales and Ann McDermott. Carole Loges was in charge of community outreach and ticket sales. Betty Seifert oversaw the arrangements at Ovens Auditorium. Jean Wright chaired our Scholarship Committee, and publicity was handled by Melissa Woolf.

In writing the Noteables articles, I feel like Janus (although considerably younger and minus the beards,) looking backward and forward on The Guild 's numerous events. During the frozen months, The Guild saw delightful success.

On January 16 the Musical Petting Zoo again regaled youngsters and their parents as they tried to play orchestral instruments before the CSO's Lollipops concert.

"Gatherings," under the expert guidance of Stephanie Pettit, brought us Mah Jongg and bridge outings with luncheons in January. Participants begged us to sponsor both of these events monthly! In early February there was an incredible gourmet dinner provided and cooked by Jonathan Martin, with wines provided from their exquisite cellar by Debbie and Pat Phillips at the home of Linda and Bill Daleure. Those who were lucky enough to attend raved about the evening.

The Young Artists Competition, on January 23, brought before two panels of impartial judges 54 young aspiring and highly talented musicians competing for prizes. The winner of the Senior Division, Baron Fenwick, played with the CSO at Youth Festival. Junior Division winners Juni Halston Lim and Maura Shawn Scanlin will appear with the CSYO at their spring concert on May 16.

A new project, The Student Practice Marathon, raised over $2,000 for the CSO. Thanks go to Pamela Mullins, Mary Boyd, Margaret Ballantyne, and Larry Bennett for running the event.

Our Winter Membership was held at The Custom Shop on Elizabeth Avenue on February 18. Music Director Designate of the CSO, Christopher Warren-Green, honored us with a short visit. He made a point of meeting everyone in the room. Lunch was delicious and a good time was had by all.

Youth Festival, held on February 24 at Ovens Auditorium, was spectacular. Three full orchestras – the CSO, the CSYO, and the JYO – managed to move about in a timely fashion. Ben Roe, Station Manager of WDAV 89.9 served as Honorary Chair. The music was totally awesome.

This year the President's Reception for New Members is being combined with an Inform-All. We will gather at Anne McKnight's house for a social and informative meeting on March 11.

There will be two sets of school concerts held on April 14 at Oven Auditorium. It's sad there are only two, but two are better than none. We need volunteers, so please call Sylvia Forsythe if you can assist.

Be sure not to miss the youth orchestras' spring concerts. The JYO will hold theirs on May 3 and the CSYO's will be on May 16. Both will be at Halton Theater.

While all of the above has taken place or is being planned, the Designer House committee has been hard at work, under the outstanding leadership of Stephanie Pettit. What a house this is going to be! Larry Elder of Elder Art Gallery has said this may be the best we have ever done. We need all of you to volunteer to make this a memorable success.

Because of Designer House, Guild board meetings had to be changed. There will be no board meeting in April. Vice presidents will be responsible for collecting their areas' annual reports and notebooks. A board meeting will be held on May 13 at 11:30 at Pfeiffer. The Annual Membership Meeting will be held on May 20. Please mark these changes on your calendars.

Ladies and gentlemen, The Guild is running at full tilt. Keep up the good work!

2010 Symphony Guild Designer House

Let's Meet at the MET

By Stephanie Pettit

Spring is on its way and so is the 2010 Symphony Guild Designer House. Everyone is working hard getting the preparation work done. Right now it's a mess.

There's painting, repairing leaking windows, removing a wall, seeing to the electrical requirements, in other words the works!!!

Our 2010 Symphony Designer House sign will be installed soon so the public will know WE'RE BACH!!!

This year the house is three condominiums at The METTerraces, 1225 Baxter Drive (at Kings Drive overlooking Uptown). Each of these three fabulous condominiums will display a design concept for either empty nesters, urban families or young professionals.

The liaisons are working constantly with the designers. We have a lot of new designers this year, and we are very excited about it.

The preview party is Friday, April 16, with the house opening April 17 and running through May 9.

Our marketing/program team is also hard at work

Guild and Met marketing gurus held a press conference.

making things happen: ads, program possibilities, golden patron packages and sponsorships.

Hopefully all of our members are excited about our three condos, shop and hostess retreat/office.

The shop will soon be set up. Vendors have been called, and this year we will have a table for gently used items you might want to donate for sale.

Come join the fun and anticipation of a great Spring Designer House!

Young Artists Competition at Queens University

By Donna Worstell

The Young Artist Competition was held at Queens University on Jan. 23, 2010. The Symphony Guild of Charlotte established the annual concerto competition in 1972 in partnership with the Charlotte Symphony. Students compete for cash prizes and the opportunity to perform in an orchestral setting.

Students compete in two categories: the Junior Division is open to students in 7th, 8th, and 9th grades while the Senior Division accepts students in 10th, 11th, and 12th grades. This year 54 young musicians competed, 29 in the Junior Division and 25 in the Senior Division.

On competition day 33 dedicated Guild volunteers worked from 9:00am to 4:00 pm when the following winners were announced:

SENIOR DIVISION

Grand Prize

Baron Fenwick, piano

Category Winners

Ledah Finck, violin

Daniel Jones, piano

Alexandra Mullins, piano

Joanna Reeder, piano

Taylor Marino, clarinet

Honorable Mention

Nathan Mitchell, violin

Mary Lyle, flute

Joanna Lee, piano

Jason Piers, marimba

JUNIOR DIVISION

Grand Prize

Halston Lim, piano

Maura Shawn Scanlin, violin

Category Winners

Grace Kim, flute

Tamara Ruth Rowe, harp

Constance Zhou, piano

Honorable Mention

Julia Kaeun Kim, violin

Yeonsoo Sara Lee, piano

Hannah Spear/Margaret Lynch, flute duet

Maria Sun, piano

Hee Sang Wang, violin

Twenty-eight different schools as well as several home-schooled students were represented. This year we had students from as far away as Asheville and Boone.

Competition judges were Dr. Stephen Etters of Catawba College, Mr. Miles Hoffman, Mr. Kenneth Law, and Dr. Doug Weeks from Converse College, Dr. Dylan Savage and Dr. Susan Savage, both from UNCC, Dr. William Lawing from Davidson College, and Mr. Jason Posnock of Brevard Music Center.

My special thanks to my committee members Martha Player (judge selection) and Marta Fales (volunteer coordinator) for once again helping the Guild run a successful competition.

Winter Meeting Warms Chilled Guild Members

By Betty Lou Newcomb

The Winter Meeting on February 18 at The Custom Shop was a delicious success. As members picked up their name badges they were given an opportunity to sign up to be "hostesses," "shop workers" or "security monitors," at the upcoming Designer House. Those who volunteered for these important jobs got a sparkly sticker for each job to decorate their

The CSO Music Director-

Designate, Christopher Warren-Green, quickly moved through the restaurant greeting all attendees. Mike Warner, Development Vice President of the CSO, and Jonathan Martin, President and Executive Director of the CSO and a member of The Guild, also walked around and spoke with our members. Two other CSO staffers, Quinesha Jones and Vanessa Garcia, attended the lunch.

Barbara Kopald and Cynthia Bradford once again showed their savvy in picking a great place with a delicious menu! Kit Ramage ran the short meeting and at the end of the day six members of The Guild walked away with fun door prizes provided by the Membership

We Have A President Elect!

By Linda Daleure

It's official—on behalf of the Nominating Committee I am pleased to announce Lisa Phillips as incoming President Elect for 2010-2011.

Lisa has been a member of The Guild since 1994. Recently, she has been active overseeing our Musical Petting Zoo. Prior to that Lisa chaired the Young Artists Competition for many years.

I know you are delighted by her acceptance of this important leadership role and will support her.

First Student Practice Marathon A Success!

By Margaret Ballantyne

A Student Practice Marathon sponsored by The Guild was an opportunity for student musicians to raise funds for the Charlotte Symphony. During a selected week in January, young musicians received donations to the CSO based on the number of hours they practiced. Their dedication raised $2,126.00 for this first-time event!

Prizes were awarded to the two Marathon winners who were recognized at the Youth Festival on Wednesday, February 24. Congratulations to Katelyn Mullins for the most hours practiced, and Moriah Roycroft for raising the most money!

In appreciation for all the student musicians' efforts, the Symphony Guild awarded each student a certificate of participation. Guild member Sylvia Howe secured various prizes which included a two-hour session on garage band software and a software program called "print music" by Finale. Also for those musicians who practiced five or more hours, Chick-fil-A generously donated gift certificates for a full meal at one of their many locations.

To all the students who participated, a huge THANK YOU!

Musical Petting Zoo Always Popular

By Janet Cauley

What a busy February! Not only was there all the excitement of Youth Festival, but the enrichment committee once again presented the Musical Petting Zoo at the February 20 Lollipops concert.

Don't you sometimes wonder if today's youth symphony members first played their chosen instrument at one of the Guild's many petting zoos? It does seem that there are always children at the Lollipops concerts or at ImaginOn's Musical Petting Zoo who come back time and time again to that same horn or woodwind. Then there is the little tiny one who can really blast on the trombone, the child who has trouble handing back the violin and whose mother asks about lessons, or the enthusiast who gets a fine rhythm on the snare.

The MPZ will again be at the last Lollipops concert of the year, "Peter and Wolf," on May 1. The concert is at 11:00 am and the Zoo opens at 10:00. If you haven't yet participated, come join the fun and hear the concert. Just give Lisa Phillips a call. Want to help sooner? The MPZ will be at ImaginOn on March 20. See you there.

Four CSYO Students Honored at Youth Festival

By Jean Wright

A top priority of The Guild is to financially assist young musicians in their musical education. At the Youth Festival we honored four students who were chosen by their coaches and Ernest Pereira, Music Director of the CSYO, with four merit scholarships.

Jacob LeGrone received the Betsy Knight Scholarship begun in 1981 and funded by Ann Thomas and her family in memory of their dear friend, Betsy Knight. Both Ann and Betsy were Symphony Guild and CSO board members. Betsy strongly believed in the importance of music education for young people and enjoyed her work with the youth orchestra.

Jacob, a Senior at South Mecklenburg High School, is the son of Mary Rutherford and Durall LaGrone. A CSYO member for two years, he has studied trumpet for six years with Gordon Hann.

In 1995 The Symphony Guild established a private-study scholarship to honor a special friend and supporter, Marie R. Rowe. The recipient is chosen from those CSYO members who audition for and win one of the ten private-study Merit Scholarships awarded each fall by The Guild. Victoria Pan, daughter of George and Violet Pan, is this year's recipient.

Victoria is a home-schooled 8th grader who is enjoying her first year in the CSYO as the Violin II Section Principal. She played in the JYO for three years. Victoria began her studies at the piano, but chose the violin and has been taking lessons for five years. Her most recent teacher is Dr. Pereira.

The Meg Hutchens Scholarship was established by The Guild in 2005 to honor the life and memory of Dr. Meg Hutchens, daughter of Guild members Peg and Tom Hutchens. A teacher of teachers, Meg devoted her life to bettering the lives of exceptional children and adults, from education to employment to self-determination. This year the Meg Hutchens Scholarship went to Katherine Elise Turner, a Senior at J.M. Robinson High School in Concord. She is the daughter of Bill and Dione Turner.

Katherine has studied viola for nine years, most recently with Ning Zhao. She has been a member of CSYO for three years.

The Past Presidents' Scholarship is awarded annually to a high school senior who intends to study music at the collegiate or conservatory level. This year the winner is Joshua Carter who attends North Lincoln High School and takes private lessons on the tuba from David Mills. Joshua, son of Bill and Rhonda Carter, has been a member of the CSYO for one year. He has been accepted at several colleges and recently became a member of the U.S. Marine Corp Band.

The Guild is proud of all the youth orchestra musicians and is pleased to be able to provide 35 merit and/or need-based scholarships this year. If you or someone you know would like to contribute to a scholarship fund or create a new named scholarship based on merit or financial need, please call the Symphony Guild Office at 704.525.0522.

School Concerts Back By Popular Demand

By Joan Foley

In response to strong interest from local schools, the Charlotte Symphony will perform two Debbie Phillips Classical Concerts for Students at Ovens Auditorium on April 14 at 9:45 am and again at 11:15 am. These concerts are open to all students – public, private, and homeschooled – in grades 3 through 8.

Since the 1950s, the Charlotte Symphony has performed education concerts free of charge for local schoolchildren. Funding for these concerts was through the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools (CMS) system. Last year funding was augmented by the creation of the Debbie Phillips Fund for the Symphony with a major endowment gift by Debbie and G. Patrick Phillips.

In 2009 CMS budget cuts led to the suspension of the concerts. However, due to the keen interest in these presentations, the CSO has decided to proceed with two performances. "We are delighted to see the strong demand demonstrated by individual schools for these programs, allowing us to reinstate a limited number of performances this year," said Jonathan Martin, Executive Director of the CSO. "For many students, a Charlotte Symphony education concert is their first, and in some cases only, live orchestral experience. As we strengthen our service to the community, we are committed to working with CMS to reinstate funding and rebuilding a full schedule of educational programs available to children at no cost." During this transition, the generosity of the Debbie Phillips Fund will allow the Symphony to offer these two performances.

"Celebrate America!" is the theme of both concerts. Guest conductor Kelly Corcoran, Assistant Conductor of the Nashville Symphony, will lead the orchestra in works by Copland, Ellington, Bernstein, and Ives, among others.

The Symphony Guild has assisted the CSO by providing ushers for the concerts. If you are able to usher, please contact Sylvia Forsythe at stforsythe@carolina.rr.com or 704.246.4006 to volunteer the morning of April 14. Although it is a very busy time with the Designer House just around the corner, members are encouraged to volunteer to seat the students and then enjoy the performance.
