The Symphony Guild of Charlotte Celebrates 75 Years of Music, Service, and Community Impact

CHARLOTTE, NC (August 20, 2025) – The Symphony Guild of Charlotte, Inc. proudly announces the celebration of its 75th Anniversary, marking three-quarters of a century dedicated to supporting symphonic music, fostering music education, and enriching the cultural life of Charlotte.

Founded in 1950, The Symphony Guild has provided financial and volunteer support to advance the mission of the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra, the Charlotte Symphony Youth Orchestras, and symphonic educational activities. From raising substantial funds for music programs to creating opportunities for young musicians, The Guild has been instrumental in advocating symphonic music in the Charlotte community and the surrounding metropolitan area.

A Legacy of Service and Music

Over its 75-year history, The Guild's commitment has extended beyond the love of symphonic music. Through signature fundraising events such as the Heart of the Home Tour, The Guild has continued its philanthropic and cultural legacy to keep classical music alive in the Charlotte community. Through the Young Artists Competition, annual Silent Auction, and other events, the organization supports music education initiatives, ensuring that the joy of symphonic music reaches audiences of all ages.

Celebrating 75 Years in Style

The Guild will mark this milestone year with a series of special events and community engagements throughout 2025 and 2026, culminating at The Guild's Annual Meeting in May 2026. This year's celebration will highlight memories, recognize milestone activities, honor past presidents, celebrate current members, including Diamond and Patron memberships, and look ahead to an inspiring future.

Quote from the President

"Seventy-five years is a remarkable achievement," said Brienne Tinder, President of The Symphony Guild of Charlotte. "This Anniversary is not just a celebration of our past — it's a promise for the future. Our mission to provide financial and volunteer support to the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra will continue to inspire and connect our community for generations to come."

Looking Ahead

As The Symphony Guild of Charlotte begins its newest chapter, it remains committed to supporting the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra and providing opportunities for the next generation of musicians.
